Judge W. H. Bensen, of Pinal, was here this week with his docket, which he submitted to the grand jury for inspection. Judge Scott, of Dudleyville, was here on the same business. The law requires all Justices of the Peace to submit their dockets to the grand jury at each session of the District Court for inspection. It is a useless law, however, as the grand jury can tell nothing about the entries in the docket, unless they had all the papers connected with each quire the justices to submit the papers with the flocket.
